

Broderick Haskell Fund: 2016-2017 Academic Year

Established in 1987 by bequest of Broderick Haskell, class of 1918, of New York, NY, for the purposes of the Oliver Wendell Holmes Library, particularly for the acquisition, maintenance, and restoration of Americana, including, but not limited to, books, prints, and maps of unusual quality and historical significance. In addition, the following electronic resources are supported.

Alexander Street: Provides material across all relevant musical genres—American, world, classical, and jazz.

Project Muse: A unique collaboration between libraries and publishers, providing 100% full-text, affordable and user-friendly online access to a comprehensive selection of prestigious humanities and social sciences journals.
