

David S. Townend Memorial Fund: 2016-2017 Academic Year

Established in 1968 and increased thereafter by the family and friends of David S. Townend, class of 1964, of Dallas, PA, in his memory, for library books.

In addition, the following electronic resources are being supported.

Books and Authors (Gale): Readers can use this database to enhance the experience of the book they are reading; dig deeper into its themes and origins; or learn how the author's life and times contributed to the work. Developed by a team of genre experts, it delivers up-to-date, reliable information not found in the random and unverified results of the Web.

Business Insights : Essentials (Gale): Research and analyze companies and industries around the world.

General Reference Center Gold (Gale): A general interest database that integrates a variety of sources – newspapers, reference books, magazines, and trade publications. Find articles on current events, popular culture, business and industry trends, the arts and sciences, sports, hobbies, and more.

Nursing and Allied Health Collection (Ebsco): With full-text access to nearly 100 journals, this database is an asset to medical researchers, medical assistants and nursing students.
