

Dole and Page Library Fund: 2016-2017 Academic Year

Established in 2002 by Malcolm Dole, Jr., Class of 1953, in memory of his Dole and Page family forebears. The fund shall be used to acquire materials for the Oliver Wendell Holmes Library, with a preference for scholarly works related to the field of Economics.

In addition, the following electronic resources are funded.

Europa World plus: Renowned as one of the world's leading reference works, covering political and economic information in more than 250 countries and territories.

-
- Coherence : the right drivers in action for schools, districts, and systems
  - Saving capitalism : for the many, not the few
  - The end of average : how we succeed in a world that values sameness
  - Leading collaborative learning : empowering excellence
  - Chickenizing farms & food : how industrial meat production endangers workers, animals, and consumers
  - Keynes Hayek : the clash that defined modern economics
  - What connected educators do differently